PACE Hosts 6th Annual Golf Tournament

Santa Clara, CA, April 25, 2014 – The Pacific Autism Center for Education (PACE) will host its 6th Annual Golf Classic on Friday, May 2nd, 2014 at Cinnabar Hills Golf Club in San Jose. All of the proceeds from the event will benefit PACE programs and services for those living with autism.

The tournament will kick off on the beautiful Cinnabar course for 18 holes of golf with a 12:30pm tee off. Registration opens at 10:00am and lunch will be provided previous to tee off. Several skill contests and games will keep the crowd amused, including a hole-in-one competition with the chance to win a 2014 Buick Encore! Following the tournament, an auction and sit-down dinner will be held at the club, with an awards and recognition ceremony.

In honor of PACE's 25th anniversary and Autism Awareness Month, this event is guaranteed to bring individuals from all parts of the bay area and beyond. "This tournament really provides a wonderful opportunity for staff and supporters a chance to dust off their golf clubs and have some fun for a great cause," said Kurt Ohlfs, PACE Executive Director. "This year, the monies raised for our 'Fund A Need' portion of the event will benefit our Miracle House, a group residential home serving those aged 6-22."

All are welcome to attend. To purchase tickets or for sponsorship opportunities, please go to <http://pacificautism.org/home/events/golf-classic/>, or call 408.625.6191.
